REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

SC Whitmore School respects the individual learning styles of its students. Our students are given the time they need to master a subject. Students are not allowed to "just pass the course," and earn credit for a "D" level of understanding. Instead, working one-to-one with their teachers, they revise each lesson until they master it. Call it a "do over". There are no semesters, therefore students move through their courses at their own pace. Students are not pushed ahead because of semester deadlines. Conversely, accelerated students are not held back by the pace of other students in the class. The individually-paced system allows a student to begin a new course at any time during the calendar year progress at the pace he or she finds most comfortable continue with a lesson until he or she demonstrates mastery work academically at the "A" or "B" level. This process ensures that a student cannot fail if they are willing to continue working with the teacher until the course concepts are mastered.
